

Jamie George was raised at First Presbyterian Church in San Antonio. She attended Texas Tech University in Lubbock, Texas. As a second-generation Red Raider, Jamie received a Bachelor of Science in Exercise and Sport Science with emphasis in Corporate and Industrial Fitness and a minor in Nutrition in 1993. She married The Rev. Jay George in 1993 and was confirmed at Christ Episcopal Church in 1994 by The Rt. Rev. John MacNaughton.

Jamie served in active lay ministry in various congregations across the Diocese of West Texas. From 1993-1997, she was active in Stephen's Ministry, Adult Education, and Youth Ministry at Christ Episcopal Church, San Antonio. From 1997-2000, she was active in the University of the South seminary community while Jay attended seminary. Upon graduation, Jay was assigned as a Curate to St. Mark's Episcopal Church, San Antonio. From 2000-2003, Jamie served St. Mark's in Young Adult Ministry, Adult Education, and in helping to create a contemporary worship service. From 2003-2008, Jamie and Jay served the congregation of St. Andrew's, Seguin with Jay as Rector. Jamie served St. Andrew's in the Young Adult Ministry, Adult Education, and Women's Ministry. In 2006, Jamie began a retreat ministry leading ecumenical retreats across Texas for many denominations.

While serving in lay ministry, Jamie also worked in various corporate occupations. She worked as a Wellness Coordinator for USAA (1993-1996) where she led a 52-person committee to accomplish reduced health care costs. She was also a Pharmaceutical Sales Representative and Territory Manager for Merck and Johnson & Johnson (1996-2006) where she received numerous national and regional awards for leadership and sales. She also worked as a Realtor with Keller Williams Legacy.

In 2006, Jamie left the corporate world to serve full-time in lay ministry. From 2008-2021, she served as full-time co-church planter with Jay as they endeavored to start the worshipping community of Grace Episcopal Church, San Antonio. In 2011, the church plant became a mission of the Diocese of West Texas. In 2015, the mission became a parish. In 2017, Grace Church completed their first capital campaign and built an all-purpose building.

After years of discernment and desiring a seminary education, Jamie graduated in 2021 from Fuller Theological Seminary with a Master in Divinity. She was ordained to the transitional diaconate by The Rt. Rev. David Reed on October 2, 2022. She currently serves as Curate at St. Helena's Episcopal Church and School, Boerne, Texas.

The Reverends Jamie and Jay George have three young adult three children, Adilyn Grace (24), Jacob Charles III (21), and Emily Faith (17). Adilyn, a third-generation graduate of Texas Tech University (2020), is headed to law school in the fall. Jacob will graduate from the University of Texas in Austin with a degree in Electrical Engineering in May of 2022. Emily will graduate from Brandeis High School in June of 2022. When they are not serving their respective churches, the family loves to eat meals together, watch movies, and travel. Jamie loves to exercise, write, hike, read, and cook great food to nourish people.
